Please keep in mind that any parishioner can present the gifts, if the person offering up the mass is not available. The Stewardship Committee and all involved in the mass would be grateful for your participation.

If any member of the parish is physically unable to attend mass and receive the Holy Eucharist we will be more than happy to have one of our priests or Eucharistic Ministers come to your home on the First Friday of the month. Please contact the rectory and we will do our best to accommodate you.

SACRAMENTO DE LA CARIDAD

El Papa singulariza el hambre que tiene todo hombre de verdad y libertad que el Sacramento del Señor ofrece.

La Eucaristía, Misterio que se a de creer: Cristo al descender del cielo como Pan de Vida trae consigo la intima comunión del amor trinitario y el creyente esta invitado a entrar en esta comunión.

La Eucaristía, Misterio que se a de celebrar: Cada creyente esta invitado a dar su respuesta personal al misterio que se celebra mediante el ofrecimiento a Dios de la propia vida, en unión al sacrificio de Cristo por la salvación del mundo entero.

La Eucaristía, Misterio que se a de vivir: El cambio es individual (trasforma toda nuestra vida) y nos compromete a un ejercicio practico del amor. La Eucaristía nos capacita e impulsa a trabajar en la estructura de este mundo; haciendo la oración "danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día" una realidad, disminuyendo en el mundo el escándalo del hambre.
